Healthy Air Living Kids' Calendar for 2015 available Valley's student artists illustrate 18th edition of popular annual publication

The 2015 Healthy Air Living Kids' Calendar is printed and available for free distribution, featuring the colorful artwork of 15 talented Valley students.

The bilingual, full-color wall calendar is an annual publication of the San Joaquin Valley Air Pollution Control District. It showcases original works of art by children in each of the air basin's eight counties, chosen from hundreds of entries. They illustrate a monthly clean-air message in English and Spanish, such as "Go green – use an electric machine" and "Bike there for clean air!"

The students whose artwork was selected for the 2014 calendar are:

- Isabella Zardo, grade 4, Modesto
- Christina Nuqui, grade 8, Tracy
- Noorpreet Mann, kindergarten, Fresno
- William Mosby, grade 6, Lodi
- Angela Flynn-Ulfers, grade 6, Lemoore
- Alice Medrano, grade 11, Coarsegold
- Jesse Gutierrez, grade 7, Delhi
- Hadiyah Pashvaei, grade 3, Bakersfield
- Jason Villegas, grade 3, Fresno
- Nathaniel Valadas, grade 4, Modesto
- Catricia Alvarez, grade 3, Dinuba
- Emily Martinez, grade 2, Sanger
- Hannah Ortiz, grade 12, Coarsegold
- Angel Pardo-Garcia, grade 7, Tulare
- Francine Therese, grade 6, Lathrop

The calendars are distributed to schools, community groups, healthcare facilities, churches, civic organizations and non-profit groups throughout the Valley. The District prints 20,000 copies of the popular, free publication, which promotes Healthy Air Living throughout the year.
